International Relations Theory

Jan 09, 2017 · Theory in practice: examining the United Nations

The United Nations (UN) is a highly respected international organisation created at the conclusion of the Second World War from the ashes of the League of Nations. Although it continues to exist, many doubt its claims to success.

Diplomacy - an overview | ScienceDirect Topics

Diplomacy is the art of obtaining agreement between countries who need to cooperate to produce results in which each has an interest. Conventionally equated with negotiation to resolve conflict, diplomacy is widely regarded as an alternative to war and war as a failure of diplomacy.
